PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
1	Standard Condition # 6: The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment.
	Special Condition # 17: The defendant shall live at an approved residence, and shall not change living situation without advance approval of the supervising officer.
	Supporting Evidence: During the morning of August 6, 2013, the offender's apartment manager reported he had not seen the offender since July 30, 2013, and that the offender was not staying at his apartment. On August 7, 2013, the undersigned attempted a home contact at the offender's residence. Mr. Squetimkin was not home at the time, so the undersigned left instructions on his door to report to the U.S. Probation Office on August 8, 2013, at 10:00 a.m.. On August 7, 2013, the undersigned contacted the offender's apartment manager. The manager advised the offender came to the apartment, paid his rent, then left on the afternoon of August 6, 2013. The offender did not report to the U.S. Probation Office on August 8, 2013. On August 9 and 12, 2013, the undersigned contacted the apartment manager, who advised the offender had not returned to the apartment and that the undersigned's reporting instructions remained on the offender's door.
